THEAGO REDS IN COURT. Rheumatism

It is an established fact that Hood's Sar-saparilla has proven an invaluable remedy in many severe cases of rhoumatism, effecting remarkable cures by its powerful action n correcting the acidity of the blood, which is the cause of the disease, and purifying and enriching the vital fluid.

It is certainly fair to assume that what Hood's Sarsapariila has done for others it will do for you. Therefore, if you suffer the pains and aches of theumatism, give this potent remedy a fair trial.

this potent remedy a fair trial. A Positive Cure.

"I was troubled very much with rheuma tism in my hips, ankles, and wrists. I could hardly walk, and was confined to my bed a good deal of the time. Being rec-ommended to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, I took four bottles and am perfectly well. I cheerfully recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as one of the best blood purifiers in the world." W. F. Woop, Bloomington, Ill.

For Twenty Years I have been afflicted with rheumatism. Before 1883 I found no relief, but grew worse. I then began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it did me more good than all the other medicine I ever had." H. T. BALCOM, Shirley, Mass. "I suffered from what the dectors called muscular rheumatism. I took Hood's Sar-aparilla and am entirely cured," J. V. A. PROUDFOOT, letter carrier, Chicago, 111. Mr. Walker then read some affidavits on the part of the state. The first was by John Carney, captain of the police at Evanston, to the effect that the affinit, Michael Cull, was a shiftless and worthless character, and that he had not been sworn when he made his affidavit. George W. Adams, one of the jurious on the trial of the case, also testified to Cull's had character, and that he had never had the conversation with Cull which the latter awaits to in his affidavit. Theodore F. Denker, another jureor in the case, made affidavit that he had no such conversation with the deponent no such conversation with the deponent Morgan and his son as they had sworn to in their affidavits. There were also affidavits by Orren's Blossom and Albert Leve taking back all they had stated in a document signed in Solomon & Zeisler's office, and which they dented ever having awarn to.
